

Strategic Leadership for Peak Performance

Designed for

Top Executives such as Ministers, Commissioners, Permanent Secretaries, Managing Directors, General Managers, Directors, Deputy Directors, Chief Executive Officers of Public and Private Companies.

Objectives

At the end of the programme, participants should, among other things, be able to:

1. Discuss issues critical to leadership and team building.
2. Evaluate leadership styles.
3. Select leadership styles based on context and situation.
4. Evaluate environmental factors in decision-making.
5. Identify factors responsible for resisting change.
6. Justify ethical approaches and due process imperatives in leadership.
7. Suggest ways of creating more executive time through empowerment and delegation.
8. Justify the “win-win” approach to conflict management and negotiation.

Key Topics

1. Strategic Management Planning
2. Strategic Leadership
3. The Visioning Process
4. Foundations of Ethics
5. Ethical Issues Confronting Managers
6. Problem Solving and Decision Making
7. Total Quality Management Strategies
8. Time Management
9. Leadership and Motivation
10. Mentoring as a Human Resource Development Strategy
11. Delegation and Empowerment
12. Management Succession Planning Strategies
13. Marketing Management Strategies
14. International Security Challenges
15. Conflict Management
16. Negotiation Skills
17. Managing Change
18. Benchmarking and “Kakushin” (Japanese strategy) for change and improvement.
19. Performance Management

Course Fee

£3800 – the Fee covers tuition, course materials, conference bag, tea, snacks, and lunch for the seminar sessions only.

Course Date

September 17-20, 2013

Course Venue

Clarens, Switzerland

Course Methodology

The programme emphasizes modern management training techniques of group discussion, case analysis, management games and faculty-led discussions.

Sponsors of the Programme

1. St Clements Private Swiss University
2. Abbey College in London
3. London Graduate School
4. Commonwealth University Belize
5. Institute of Management Specialist, UK

If you are interested please contact Professor Sir Dr. Tan Man Ho for further details.